REVIVAL MEETINGS .- The Centenary and Broad-Street Methodist congregations are holding protracted religious services, night after night, conducted by the two pastors, Dr. Edwards and Dr. Granbery, at Broad-Street church, which are growing in interest and are attended with marked success. The congregations are large and serious, and already quite a number of persons have professed conversion, and the religious inquiry is on the increase. These meetings will be continued every night during next week.

ALLEGED INTIMIDATION OF A WITNESS .- On Friday a difficulty occurred in Petersburg between Mr. Alexander Vaughan and Mr. James E. Justice, at the house of the latter. Justice is a lame man, but it is represented he inflicted severe injuries upon Vaughan, and he immediately made his way to Richmond, not by train, but by buggy, and was accompanied by a colored man. The two were seen by a policeman as they entered the city over the Free bridge, and attention was particularly drawn to Justice because he had his crutch hanging over the side of the buggy. Justice and the negro had bardly reached here when Lieutenant Harris and Private Perkinson, of the Petersburg police, arrived here with a war-rant for Justice's arrest. Sergeant Fowlkes and Policeman Hulce made a vain search for him, but could not get upon the right track. Upon reaching Richmond, Justice went to the house of Mr. Parker C: Wescott, on Franklin street, and early yesterday morning sent for the District Attorney and made complaint that he had been attacked by Vaughan because of evidence given by him (Justice) before the United States grand jury against John E. Butcher, one of the Petersburg judges of election. Commissioner Atkins was sent for, and went to Mr. Wescott's, and there Justice swore to the complaint, and a warrant for the arrest of Vaughan was accordingly issued. Subsequently, as Justice was coming out of Westcott's, he was arrested by Sergeant Perrin and Policeman Hulce on the warrant eworn out against bim by Vaughan in Petersburg. He was taken to the Second station-house and turned over to the Petersburg officers, by whom he was carried to

Petersburg yesterday afternoon. It is expected that Vaughan will be brought before Commissioner Atkins today. He will be examined by a United States tribunal for an alleged assault upon Justice, and Justice will be examined before Mayor Gregory for an assault upon Vaughan.

State Republican Committee." Speech of A. H. Stephens at Augusta,

Ga. AUGUSTA, October 16 .- Hon. A. H. Stephens addressed the citizens of Augusta today. He spoke for about two hours and a house on Denny between Sixth and Seventh half. He reviewed the history of the Government from its foundation to the present time, showing that the great struggle has always been between centralism and constitutionalism. He said the passage of the civil-rights bill would work great evil and destroy the public-school system South. He referred to President Grant, and said he would do him the justice to say he had done his duty. As to the third term, he had no objection to that. He saw no reason why a President who executed the laws faithfully should not be elected for a third term if the people desired it. He had looked into the Louisiana question and saw no sense in abusing President Grant for his action in that affair. He spoke hopefully of the future of the Republic. He advised his bearers to obey the laws, suppress lawlessness, and be true to the Constitution and the Union as established by our fathers. He proclaimed bimself a Jeffersonian Democrat, and bad great faith in the triumph of those principles. Mr. Stephens had an immense audience and he spoke with elearness and vigor, exhibiting no signs of weariness. The Elections.
